

Dear _____,

This is just a reminder that you signed up to be our Mystery Reader this Thursday afternoon at 1:45. Since you are a “mystery” to the students, I am hoping you will be willing to write five clues about yourself that I can give the class as hints before you come. You may send them in or email them to me at PaupNico@shenet.org.

Here is a sample set of clues written by a parent last year.

1. My favorite book when I was in third grade was Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
2. I was the youngest child in my family growing up.
3. My family has one dog as a pet.
4. I love to watch American Idol with my family.
5. My favorite family vacation is visiting our family cottage in Cape Cod every summer.

I start with clue #1 and end with clue #5. As you get closer to clue #5, you should make your clues a bit more revealing so that your child starts to recognize some of the information in the clues. It is so fun when the students realize that their parent is one who has written the clues and will soon be reading to our class!

Let me know if you have any questions!

Thanks!
Mrs. Paupini
